NIAGARA FALLS.-We were very agreeably surprised last evening on a visit to this exhib tion in Barclay-street, to observe with what fidelity and truth the artist has displayed Nature in the design and exccution of this work. The greatest care has been taken to preserve the localities of the principal objects of attraction about Tug Falls; and one who is familiar with the scenes in the neighborhood of Ninay well faney this to be a miniature and most perfect resem blace of the great original. The bold, precipitous ledges of rock, Goat Island, and the mighty rushing of the many waters, are wel and truly depicted, while the artificial roar of the cataract not only bears the semblance of Nature, but is almost deafening. Those wh have never visited Niagara Falls will be enabled, on vicwing this exhibition, to form a correct idea of their grandeur and magnificence. visit by the novelty and striking resemb sace manifest throughout the 3.7 The above Exhibition, having just undergone many important improvements and alterations, is opened THIS DAY for the reception from 10 to 12 in the Morning, 3 to 6 in the A termoon, and from S to 10 in the evening. All lovers of the Sublime and Beautiful, would do well to attend. Price 25 cents-Children under 12 years of age, bull price. The proprietors trust, that all who have any taste or respect for the Fine Arts, will repair to the Academy, (three tions below the Astor House) and encourage this effort to please.

Vertice — This semiglaction containing all the most points are carefully excitated, as the object of the compiler was to adapt the book to the use of the closet, of farmines and revival meetings, in the words of the preface, to the wants and feedings of persons in every stage of religious moression, from that of the awarened sinner to that of the experienced Christian. The frymin are generally of the character of those compiled in the Vallase Hirmi Book. Some are repented exclusively for Camp Meetings, and the rest are such as their name imports, "—B. Advo. "This is a collection mainly of such well known and popular Hymns and Scared Songs as are costs generally used in Camp Meetings and in senson, of Revival. They must not all please a critical taste, but they are not the less likely to challed in a fervient heart. Such a combination was needed, and we doubt not it will be valety disseminated "—Tribune.
